

KLOVE radio which operates on FM translator service provides an invaluable service to the local community. The station contributes to the emotional and mental and spiritual health of this community. This local community would suffer a loss in quality of life if displaced by a low power FM broadcast (LPFM) service station. Thus it is the best public interest to ensure the continuance of this FM translator service. Thank you.